

Shamrock

What to expect:

The ladies of Kappa Delta will hold fun fall related games and activities. At this fall festival there will also be live music and a Milly Grub food truck, a local downtown restaurant in Milledgeville. There will also consist of small business vendors along with those sweet fall festival vibes and decor.

Raise Money and Awareness for PCAA and the Bright House

MILLEDGEVILLE, Georgia - Kappa Delta at Georgia College is hosting a fall festival to raise money for their philanthropy of the PCAA and the Bright House. PCAA stands for Prevent Child Abuse of America committed to preventing child abuse and neglect before it happens. The Bright House is located in Milledgeville and provides advocacy and forensic services for children, adolescents, and adults who have been victims of abuse. 20% of the funds will go to PCAA and the other 80% will go to the Bright House.

